PROJECT YES!! Sixth Grade students will be taking a field trip to St. Johns University October 11, 2017. This is in conjunction with their participation in Project YES! (Youth Energy Summit). Discovery Woods has the youngest team involved in this statewide program, which focuses on energy conservation and sustainability. The goal of the program is to engage youth to take positive action in their communities. Every year our team is expected to take on a school or community wide project that emphasizes the goals of the YES! program. The field trip is the fall summit for Project YES! which is a time for students to connect with others across the state, learning about leadership and projects other schools have completed.
